[Advertisement of his sale of the "Memorial Medal" of the Boston Numismatic and New England Historic Genealogical Societies.]

Dear Sir:

I beg leave to notify you that I have for sale the beautiful little "Memorial Medal" of the Boston Numismatic and New England Historic-Genealogical Societies, noticed on the last page of the "American Journal of Numismatics" for January, 1874.

The obverse bears a fac-simile of the seal of the Boston Numismatic Society, date of incorporation, etc.; legend—"Presidency of Ulysses S. Grant,"· "1873," the four stars on each side of the date indicating the military rank of the Chief Magistrate, during whose administration the medal has been struck. On the reverse is an elaborate reproduction of the seal of the New England Historic-Genealogical Society, with a legend referring to both societies, "Twin delvers in the garden of history."

The size is 20. The dies were executed by Geo. H. Lovett, of New York, for Mr. I. F. Wood, the medal being the fourth issued in his "series," and "No. 2" of "Series D." The issue in Silver was strictly limited to twenty-five, at the price of $2.00 each (all of which are disposed of).

In Brass or Copper, 60 cents each, or $1.00 the set of two. Only 150 "sets" of the latter (or 325 medals in all), were struck, of which only a certain number are offered to collectors, the remainder being deposited in the cabinets of various Societies.

Early application is solicited from those desiring the medal, as the dies have been cancelled, Mr. Wood's invariable rule where any issue is limited, in order to protect collectors from fraud, and the possibility of future multiplication.

Wood, Isaac Francis

[Flyer advertising Centennio - Satirical Washington medal]

Centennio-Satirical Washington Medal.

New York, July 3d, 1875.

I offer to collectors the above. It is No. 3 of "Series C." of my issues.

It is memorial of a great and prosperous nation's boundless and overflowing gratitude to its Father—Founder—and Most Illustrious Citizen.

One hundred years ago to-day, Washington took command of the Revolutionary Army. At the close of eight years of weary marches, hard fought battles, and endless discouragements, in which, often, he alone upheld the faltering form and hopes of Liberty, he stood acknowledged "First in War." Again, for eight years, he, with disinterested devotion, served his country in arduous civil affairs. He returned to private life pre-eminently "First in Peace."

A half-century after his death, the nation he had created conceived the beautiful, but erroneous idea that he was also "First in the Hearts of his Countrymen." To demonstrate which, they began to erect, at the National Capital, a monument, which, in majestic height and general design, should be emblematic of his superlative character. With a great flourish they blazoned this to the world. States, Corporations and Foreign Nations sent — "building blocks." The people raised some money. Alas, Washington wasn't in the supposed location, viz: these "Hearts." Nearly thirty years are passed away, and, in this Centennial year of our Nationality, less than half of the six hundred feet of the shaft alone stands completed. The Pantheon base exists only on paper.

It is a lofty satisfaction to American pride! It is a noble object for foreign criticism!

Any surplus over and above the actual cost of the medal that may possibly accrue from its sale, (an experience I have never yet realized), will be cheerfully devoted to the Monument fund. (May-hap there will be enough to buy one brick.

S. F. W.

DESCRIPTION OF MEDAL.

Obv. Bust to right, from Houdon. Rev. View of monument as it stands to-day. Legends and inscriptions, alternately on obverse and reverse, "* FIRST IN WAR AND IN PEACE * LAST IN SECURING" * "A MONUMENT." * "1775—100 years 1875"—"corner-stone laid 1848—completed 1876 (?)"—"Washington D.C."—"(Presidency of U. S. Grant)"—"Wood's Series, c. No. 3."—Size .24, Am. scale. Issue in SILVER strictly limited to 30; price $5 each. BRONZE, $1. WHITE METAL, 50 cents, of which latter only 50 will be offered for sale; the remainder being distributed among various Societies and personal friends, according to the designer's usual custom. To be had, on application with remittance, of

THE "NEW YORK MEDAL CLUB," 64 Madison Avenue, N. Y. City.

Also of H. G. SAMPSON, Fulton St. and Broadway; and JOHN W. HASELTINE, 1225 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

By registered letter, 10 cents additional.

NOTE. Since the first issuance of the medal, the reverse die has been slightly altered, not to make a variety, but, to improve the appearance of the monument, the original having unintentionally represented it as a wooden structure instead of as one of stone. Slight alterations in the punctuation also were made at the suggestion of friends. Of the 1st issue, 28 were struck in plain copper for presentation purposes only. Of the 2d, a single impression in silver—for my own collection—and some in white metal, were struck, the latter not being for sale as the limit (50) was reached in the 1st issue. There remain, therefore, at this date, only silver of the 1st, and bronze of the 2d, issues, for sale. (J. F. W., January, 1877.)

American Numismatic and Archæological Society.

NEW YORK, February, 1878.

The Executive Committee has adopted, until further notice, the following price-list for back volumes of the AMERICAN JOURNAL OF NUMISMATICS:

Vols. 1 to 4 (48 Nos., 1866—70), being the first series, complete,	.	.	$25	the set.
" 1 " 5 inclusive,	.	.	30	"
" 1 " 6 "	.	.	32	"
" 1 " 12 "	.	.	44	"

Binding not included.

The above complete sets are now very difficult to obtain, and the Society's remainder is exceedingly limited. Vols. 1, 3, or 4 can be had separately, completed, at $4.50 per volume, and Vol. 2. lacking one or two numbers, at $4. Such single Nos. as the Society can furnish, 50 cents each.

The JOURNAL, now about to enter on its 13th year of publication, is a valuable compendium of the progress of Numismatic interests in America, and is of useful interest to the historical student and antiquarian. It contains the Proceedings of the various Societies, and the illustrations comprise many valuable photographs, steel plates and woodcuts of American and Canadian coins and medals, paper money, old prints, Masonic tokens, etc., etc.

Mr. Henry Chapman Jr.

Dear Sir

Yours of 21st has reached me. I think I have one or more of the Thos Jackson pieces. I shall go up to the City tomorrow and will look into the matter. If not I would like an opportunity to purchase. Meantime consult Bushnell & Satterlee's list. I think Satterlee has it.

How do you make such capital guessings?

Keep me advised of any recent or new political & personal coppers or brass pie-fenced; anything but silver except when struck in no other metal.

Also badges, etc. for prize candidates. I have picked up many scarce varieties by nosing around the cheap fancy goods & toy jobbing houses devoted to the "rooral" trade.

A small but very pretty (as I think) Washington medal designed by me for the Cambridge Centennial in 1875, but laid aside, has within the last month been completed and issued. It is one of my "irregular" issues; i.e. not alphabetically or numerically classified "serially"; and form a neat accompaniment to my larger Cambridge medal of the regular "Washington

Series "(Series "C")

I will send you a set of samples when I get to town with description & prices, ~~Book~~ and perhaps some others. I expect to publish a complete list of all my issues this month and shall perhaps put your name on it as one of the agents.

Meantime (confidentially) how is it with Hamilton. I accidentally heard he was in "Bedlam". If so is it safe to trust him "sidesaddle" deposit with things on sale. I owe him an old balance which was to be settled by sales of my stamps, but I have delayed paying it up. This is strictly confidential. Please advise me your ideas.

Yours truly J. F. K.

By the way speaking of H.'s "side saddle" deformity - reminds I know several such unfortunate cases of deformity & often wondered how they reached "it" when the other hand got tired.
